Summary

I am a B.Tech student in Mathematics & Computing at RGIPT, deeply passionate about Natural Language Processing (NLP), Semantic Search, Data Science, and Computer Vision. With hands-on experience in Python, C++, PyTorch, and LangChain, I actively explore AI-driven search and recognition systems.

I enjoy solving complex real-world problems using deep learning and advanced retrieval algorithms. As a Kaggle enthusiast, I continuously refine my data science and machine learning skills through competitions and projects.

I am always looking for exciting collaborations in AI, ML, and research-driven innovation. Let's connect!
